

Uncovering the implications of Baptism...

Living Wet!

Brought to you by Rev. Daniel N. Klem (Fr. Dan) and Debbie Stollery : Co-workers in the vineyard, colleagues in ministry and old friends.

A PARISH RETREAT

- Ever wish parishioners understood their dignity as children of God?
- Ever wish there was a systematic way to help the already baptized understand the dignity of their baptism?
- Ever want to stimulate thinking about what it means to be a baptized Catholic?
- Ever looking for another way to support parents of newly baptized babies?

Booking now!

3 Formats Available:

1. Friday evening and Saturday from 9:00AM-2:00PM
2. Saturday from 9:00AM-4:30PM
3. Three two-hour segments on weeknights or weekdays

We will provide advertising templates for your use.

- ◆ Baptism changes our identity into children of God
- ◆ Baptism gives us a pattern through which we see the world: the Mystery of Faith
- ◆ Baptism gives us our mission in life

To discuss this further, contact:
Debbie Stollery
328 McKown Drive
Falling Waters WV 25419

Phone: 304-274-0513
Mobile: 757-470-9636
In Tidewater: 757-625-4334 (Fr. Dan)
E-mail: info@conspirita.com

About the presenters:

Fr. Dan Klem (M.Div) Pastor of Sacred Heart parish in Norfolk, VA.

Debbie Stollery (M.A.) Co-owner of a consulting firm that provides services to Catholic parishes in adult formation, leadership development and Christian initiation.

Virtus Trained and Vetted with Diocese of Richmond