

Retreat Links

<http://onlineministries.creighton.edu/CollaborativeMinistry/cmo-retreat.html> A service of Creighton University's Collaborative Ministry Office, this online retreat is billed as a chance to find intimacy with God wherever you are.

http://www.goodgroundpress.com/online_retreats.aspx A service of Good Ground Press, here you will find online retreating materials for Lent (for adults and teens), for Easter, and then special retreats for adults: "Finding God", "Fully Alive" and "Memoir Writing" as well as an online retreat for teens entitled "Life is a Puzzle: A Pieceful Retreat."

<http://www.catholicsoncall.org/programs/onlineRetreat/index.html> A service of Catholics on Call, these online retreats are composed of well-written reflections and then suggestions for scripture passages with which to read and pray throughout the weeks. The site offers weekly retreats on Living the Eucharist, Called and Sent, The Lord's Prayer: A Spirituality of Discipleship, and Gazing on the Face of Christ. Each retreat is written by Robin Ryan CP.

Accessed 4/5/10.

ConSpirita Consulting Network LLC has no personal, financial or professional relationship with any of these entities or their creators. These links are provided simply as a service to those responsible for offering retreats to parishes.